

Have a Blether & Make a Difference!

Thanks for offering to hold a fundraising event for the Mamie Martin Fund. The money you raise will help us to continue to support girls in secondary education, improving their lives, their communities and their country.

What do you want to do?

Something as simple as a coffee morning or afternoon tea can raise a good amount. Perhaps you'd like to do an open garden, or a craft afternoon, or a yoga day. It's up to you! We're inviting you to get together with your friends, Have a Blether & Make a Difference.

Have a Blether pack

Once you've decided on your event and date, we can send you a pack with invitations, a sign for your door or gate and some MMF publicity materials. If you'd like anything else, such as Malawian cloths for your tables or Malawian artefacts to offer in a prize draw, just let us know.

Photos and posts

If you'd like to and if your friends agree, you could send us photos for the website or Facebook page. This might encourage others to follow your example and hold their own Have a Blether & Make a Difference. If you use Facebook or Twitter, you could post about your day.
